Dear Applicant

Vacancy for Progression Coach

We are delighted that you are interested in joining us at C+K. A copy of the Job Description and Person Specification is included in the application pack.

It is important that you read these documents before you submit your application, to make sure that you demonstrate how you meet the Essential and Desirable criteria required for the post. Shortlisting will be carried out based on the information you provide.

The post you are applying for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, so you will need to read and policy Recruitment of Ex-offenders and complete Section 9 of the application form.

Shortlisting usually takes place within 10 working days of the closing date. Therefore, if you have been selected to attend interview, you will have heard from us by this time. Unfortunately, due to the volume of applications that we receive, we are not able to contact applicants to inform them that an application has been unsuccessful and we are unable to provide feedback on shortlisting.

We do however, thank all our applicants for the interest, time and commitment they have shown by responding to our vacancies. We will always welcome further applications from unsuccessful applicants for other posts that we advertise.

If you have any special needs arising from a disability and require any of the recruitment information in any other format, or need any other assistance, please let us know.

I hope that having read the job description and personnel specification, you are able to apply for this position and I look forward to receiving your completed application, which should be sent to recruitment@ckcareers.org.uk by the end of the closing date deadline. Your application will be acknowledged by an automate email and you will only be contacted if you have been shortlisted for an interview.

Thank you once again for your interest.

Yours faithfully
Yasmin Dar

To enable all young people and adult customers on caseloads to participate effectively in appropriate learning and employment opportunities and activities by providing impartial information, advice and support, in line with contractual requirements.

Raising aspirations and self-confidence and removing barriers to education, employment and training by brokering access to a range of specialist services enabling clients to reach their full potential.

MAIN DUTIES

- To provide information, advice and ongoing support for clients who are disengaged or are at risk of disengaging from education, employment or training.
- To identify, explore and assess the needs of clients and ensure needs are met in an integrated, coherent and sustained manner.
- Provide immediate and appropriate support by referring to and working with specialist services, opportunity providers and employers to support retention and progression.
- To deliver career/employability-related group sessions, presentations, and employer engagement opportunities.
- To provide information and advice on career, learning and employment choices which is informed by up-to-date labour market information and intelligence.
- Enable clients to identify, access and interpret information and intelligence which is relevant to them, including appropriate use of information technology e.g. web-based and social media sources.
- Establish, maintain and develop effective relationships with external referral agencies, wider partner organisations and local employers to ensure contract measures are achieved.
- To collect, manage and share client information effectively and securely. Update records and confidential information on databases, adhering to Company and contract requirements and protocols.
- To complete any necessary additional administrative tasks associated with providing support to clients and/or the contract.
- To promote equality of opportunity in all aspects of work by respecting diversity, beliefs and cultures and challenging assumptions, stereotypes and low expectations.
- To review and reflect on own practice and continually improve and update own skills and knowledge.

- To encourage and involve customers in the design, delivery and evaluation of all aspects of our services in accordance with policies and procedures.

The Balance of these duties will depend upon contractual context.
